

Promoting Peace with Poetry and Art

Today, conflict and violence are on the rise, with many regional conflicts. Around the world, millions of children are in danger. We, the pupils from class VI B, used poetry and art to express our hopes for a more peaceful future. Our English teacher, Alexandra Bega, challenged us to write acrostic poems using the word PEACE.

Prayers keep peace on our planet,
Everyone is calm and happy.
All the people in the world
Can feel safe and can be hopeful,
Even during difficult times.

Sara Frățilă

Prosperity will come when you all stand for
Equality and justice together
A world full of love will rise forever
Cause we're all a family,
Each human for humanity!

Alexia Savu

People in Ukraine are dying for nothing
Everybody wants to live
Alarms are going off and people are scared
Can we help?
Everyone can and needs to do so.

Rareș Mitrea

Pray for Ukraine , stand for Ukraine,
Everyday and people in Ukraine will hear you
And gain hope , so they
Can stand and go back home,
Enlightened.

Please, keep this beautiful world a good place!
Enough space for all, we don't need to race.

Care about all the humans' scars!
End this war!

Everyone wants it to stay,
And never go away, stay
Calm and enjoy this wonderful day,
Especially the ones who from home are away.

People will stand together
Equality is the word we need
And I hope that all will say
Can we help? Can we re-establish peace?
Especially those who started it.

Everyone deserves to stay at home,
At a table with their family.
Come on, let's help
Each human, for humanity!

Erupting from our hearts.

Peace? What does it mean to you?
Everybody needs to believe that peace is like home!
A place where we can go, when we feel alone.
'Cause we are all a family!
Even if we are from different places!

Cristina Bulie

People should help each other.
Earth is a beautiful place,
All we want is to keep it like this
Calm is the best option.
Everyone is equal, no one is more powerful.
